

A one-stop shop for consumer information on shopping outside the European Union.

Consumers must be made aware of their (reduced) rights, and possibilities for redress, when shopping in the global online marketplace.

Summarises consumer rights in the global online market place.

Informs what to look out for if purchasing.

Advises what to do and whom to turn to in the event of a problem.